uphis lan scrip, 1875...... u y warranta in we activity yesterday than had been to skell for; the tendency was again in favor of buyers, but the official quota tions remain unchanged. New York was 1-16z lower; Liverpool sent no dispatches except some particulars of Friday's market. Five of the ocean cables have been will'utly broken, no doubt by certain "rings" to facilitate frauds. The New York Bulletin, of Thusday, reported: "On contracts the market has been irregular but in the main favorable to buryers. The Liverpool advices were Cyers. The Liverpool advices were isappointing in not showing some improvement, the rush to cover was less anxious and general and, finding the receipts at the ports comparatively full, the 'bears' bave improved the opportu nity to crawd matters. A pretty libera offering of short notices and no impor tant calls for them has also tended to weaken the marke', especia'ly as the rates at which they could be reached was proportionately lower than this and the next month. From spinners the call proceeds in the ordinary careful man ner, now and then a leading buyer taking a fair amount, but the average order covering only a small and unimportant invoice." Quotations at the Memphis cotton exchange were as follows:
